THE QUALITY OF A BUGGY

SHOWS IN ITS USE.

If you want a buggy of which you can always be sure we have it. It will OUT-WEAR, OUT-LOOK and OUT-STAY any buggy made anywhere by anybody, (no exception whatever) and look better when you have gotten tired of it than most buggies do after 1 or 2 years use. This sounds big and might seem like WIND, but we are back of it all. Our guarantee on this buggy is the strongest ever given on ANY BUGGY by ANY FIRM.

"We guarantee it fully against any defect in material for TWO YEARS from date of purchase. For one year we guarantee wheels, axles, springs, running gear and shafts AGAINST BREAKAGE from any cause whatever. No questions asked at all. If your horse runs away, if you drive over a stump, in fact an accident of any kind breaking up your buggy will be fully covered."

That is the quality of this buggy and the price right. We still have the best, cheap, buggy ever sold in this county. Let us show them to you.

"For every dollar spent at our store we guarantee 100 cents worth of satisfaction."

DR. TALMAGE DEAD.

Great Presbyterian Preacher
Passes Away.

Probably the Most Conspicuous Pulpit Orator in America.

Washington, April 12.—The Rev. DeWitt Talmage, D. D., the noted Presbyterian divine, died at 9 o'clock-to-night at his residence in this city. It had been evident for some days that there was no hope for his recovery.

Dr. Talmage's Eventful Life.

Thomas DeWitt Talmage was born January 7, 1832, at Bound Brook, N. J. He was educated in the University of the City of New York and was graduated from the New Brunswick Theological seminary in 1856. His first pastorate was at Belleville, N. J., in the Presbyterian church. In 1859 he went to Syracuse, N. Y., and in 1862 became located in Philadelphia. There he remained seven years, when he was called to the pastorate of the Central Presbyterian church in Brooklyn.

Dr. Talmage remained in Brooklyn until about eight years ago. It was during his Brooklyn pastorate that Dr. Talmage gained his greatest fame. There he gathered large numbers of followers and acquired a national reputation for effective but rather sensational pulpit orator. His sermons were widely read and soon Dr. Talmage was called upon to furnish his sermons in advance for publication simultaneously in the Monday morning papers throughout the country. This involved great labor. Dr. Talmage took several tours about the world. He wrote his sermons far in advance and preached them wherever he chanced to be, whether on the ocean or in India.

Dr. Talmage's congregation in Brooklyn built him a church in 1870 having a capacity of 3,400, so great was the demand to hear him, nearly every visitor to New York crossing over to Brooklyn to hear him. This building was soon enlarged to accommodate 500 more people. The next year it was destroyed by fire. Then the congregation built a church with a seating capacity of 5,000, and it was often filled to the utmost.

For many years, so great was the demand, Dr. Talmage also preached on Sunday afternoons in the Academy of Music in New York, besides preaching two sermons in his Brooklyn church. After the second burning of his church in 1890, Dr. Talmage preached in the Academy of Music and devoted the next few years to travel.

FORMERLY OF CHRISTIAN.

Shelby Bradshaw Passes Away In McCracken County.

Mr. Shelby Bradshaw, formerly a citizen of this county, died Saturday at his home near Woodville, McCracken county. He was 78 years of age and moved from Christian county to McCracken in 1850. ### GEN. HAMPTON DIES.

South Carolina's Noblest Son
Crosses The River.

Fought for the South and Saved
His State from the Hordes of the Carpetbaggers.

Columbia, S. C., April 11.—Gen. Wade Hampton died this morning at 9 o'clock.

His death resulted not from any disease, but was the result of a general breakdown.

Gen. Hampton celebrated his eighty fourth birthday last week. A month ago he had a severe attack and his children were called to his bedside. He rallied, however, and was out driving a week ago.

In the last few days his condition had grown rapidly worse and was pronounced precarious last night by his physicians.

The end came peacefully, he being conscious almost to the last. The whole city and state are in mourning. The capitol building and many private residences are being draped in crape.

Wade Hampton was one of the seven surviving lieutenant general of the Confederacy, the others being Gordon and Longstreet of Georgia, Lee of Mississippi, Buckner of Kentucky, Lee of Virginia, and Wheeler of Alabama. He was one of the greatest men ever produced by South Carolina. As a general in the Confederacy, as governor and as United States senator he achieved splendid records.

His work as a statesman equaled his career as a soldier. To Hampton more than any other man was due the reclamation of the state at the close of the re-construction period. He organized the best people of the state and wrested the reins of power from the carpet-bag regime.

A few years ago his home burned, but although aged and poor, he refused to allow the people of South Carolina to rebuild it for him by popular subscription.

Is Utley a Candidate?

Louisville, April 8.—Though W. H. Utley, of Lyon county, president protem. of the senate, declared that when the legislature adjourned that he was done with politics, he intimated to some friends at Seaboard's hotel that he might be a candidate for governor.

Mrs. and Mrs. H. H. Tandy are expected to return from their bridal tour to-day. They will be at home at Mr. Ford L. Wilkinson's, on South Main street.

We have had a large enrollment and have secured positions for every one of our graduates, without a single exception, and many of them are holding some of the most responsible positions, with salaries ranging from $35 to $125 a month. No better school anywhere. We have four of the very best teachers of experience, who are graduates of the very best colleges in the South.

You can get no better, no more thorough courses anywhere. We are working for our reputation, hence it is to our advantage to thoroughly prepare our students and place them in good positions.

We are connected with three Employment Agencies in other cities and are having many more calls for book-keepers and stenographers every week than we can possibly supply. All you have to do is to take a thorough course with us, and the consequences will take care of themselves.

Our tuition is lower than anywhere else. We have a good boarding house to take all our students at $8 to $10 a month. This school is permanent. Write for Catalogue.

AIRSHIP

Line Across the Atlantic Is Predicted.

Santos-Dumont Believes He Will Live To See Passengers Transported

New York, April 10.—Alberto Santos-Dumont, builder and navigator of airships, arrived here today on the steamer Deutschland. As the Deutschland neared Nantucket Santos-Dumont attempted to send the following message ashore: "I bow to the greatest country in the world."

He did not succeed in getting the message off.

He has come to the United States to discuss plans for an exhibition of aerial navigation with the managers of the St. Louis Exposition, and will be in this country for three weeks. Engagements in England during the coronation of King Edward require that he re-cross the Atlantic by that time, but if the necessary arrangements can be made he will return here in July or August for either a race with a rival or an exhibition. That he might be prepared for a visit this summer, he has shipped his latest but it is No. 7, to this country. The young aeronaut was accompanied by Dr. L. A. Aime, former secretary of the Aero Club of Paris, and M. M. Chapin, a macabre passenger who is much anxious.

Santos-Dumont will remain in New York five days before going to St. Louis.

"I hope to see New York the prince, at a party of the world before I pass away. I have no doubt that in my time, perhaps ten years, if I get the proper encouragement and help, aerial navigation will be an accomplished fact. I have no doubt but that I will live to see passengers transported by airship across the Atlantic from Paris."

"I have not patented my airship in this country and I do not intend to. I want other men to take my ideas and improve on them if they can. If the St. Louis Exposition takes place next year, it is possible that nobody except myself would be ready to enter a race of airships, but if it takes place two years from now I am sure there would be other entries. I have great hope for the future of the airship. You are doing some excellent work on it here in the United States, and your professor, S. P. Langley, is one of the greatest men in the field in the world. This is the country, too, in which it should be taken up, for you have the men, the money, and the enterprise."

CHILDREN STARVED.

Pitiable Case of a Father's Inhumanity is Discovered in Trigg County.

Cadiz, Ky., April 10.—A peculiar case was tried here to-day before County Judge Bingham. Jim Porter was charged with and tried for exposing his children to the weather and for failing to provide them with food. The children, two girls and a boy, aged five, seven and nine years, were in the last stages of starvation when found by neighbors and the case reported to the authorities. They were living like members of the magazine pictures of the starving Haudouins. Such pinched, suffering faces were never seen in this town before, and their limbs were so small that it caused them to appear monstrous. Porter was sentenced to 120 days on the rock pile and the children were put in the almshouse.

Bride is Under Thirteen.

Owningsville, Ky., April 10.—C. B. Sexton, aged about twenty years, and Miss Annie Hunt, aged less than thirteen, were married near Forge Hill. Miss Hunt is the youngest bride in this section.

During a storm a tree fell across a Louisiana church, killing the preacher and three worshippers.

Dixon, Ky., April 10.—The cases of J. D. Wood, district president, and C. C. Barnaby, vice president of the United Mine Workers, indicted as accessories to the murder of several non-union miners of Providence last November, were called in the Circuit Court today. Wood, Barnaby and several other prominent union men are in the city. Many witnesses are here and each side has been active in making preparations for the trial. The defendants will be represented by Judge W. H. Yost, of Greenville; R. Y. Thomas, of Central City; J. W. Lockett, of Henderson; and Jennings & Johnson, of Madisonville. State's Attorney L. C. Flouney will be assisted by Bourland & Hunt and Baker & Baker, of Dixon. Nearly one hundred witnesses have been summoned for the trial.

Over a hundred foreign staff correspondents of The Chicago Record-Herald are located in important cities abroad. Their duties do not end with the transmission of news by cable, but include also correspondence by mail concerning all important matters of any interest to readers in this country. It is worthy of note also that in addition to the work of its own correspondents The Record-Herald receives the full foreign news service of the New York Herald and the Associated Press.

SAYS BILL WAS SIGNED.

President of Senate Appears Before Grand Jury.

Frankfort, Ky., April 10.—President Newton W. Utley, of the state senate, told the Franklin county grand jury that his best recollection of the Harris bill was that he signed it before the close of the legislative session, the records of the clerks of the body to the contrary notwithstanding.

Senator George Farris, who is still here, says that on the afternoon of the day before the session closed President Utley informed him that the bill had been properly signed.

Seventeen Year Locust.

The State Geologist of the State of Indiana predicts the appearance of the locust throughout the States of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky this spring and summer of the Seventeen Year Locust. Indiana, he says, will suffer more from the ravages of the locust, than the other three States combined. It has been many years since the locust made its appearance in numbers like the army worm, but the damage then done was enough to serve the country for many years.

The foliage and young growth of the forests were killed and the timber fairly ruined.

DON'T MISS IT.

Comical Equal Suffragists.

A funny fatality seems to inspire opponents of equal rights for women to use the most incongruous arguments possible. A United States Senator of notoriously profligate life objects to woman suffrage on the ground that it would injure "the purity and delicacy of womanhood." The representatives of the liquor interests object for fear it might impair the happiness of the home.

Rev. Everett Hale, who has just celebrated his 80th birthday, objects to women's voting because they can not fight; and Mrs. A. J. George, of Massachusetts, who spends much time traveling about lecturing, objects on the ground that "a woman's place is at home."

It suggests a story of the old days before imprisonment for debt was abolished in England. The rumor of a French invasion had thrown the whole country into excitement. An imprisoned debtor was talking through the bars of his window with a street beggar and a soldier who was considerably more than "half seas over."

"If the French effect a landing on British soil, what will become of our liberties?" cried the imprisoned debtor. "Yes, and of our property?" echoed the tattered beggar. "Oh, d—n our liberty and our property!" vociferated the drunken soldier, "What will become of our religion?"

CADETS EGG A COMMANDANT

CULMINATION OF INSUBORDINATION AT A KENTUCKY COLLEGE.

LEXINGTON, KY., April 9.—Insubordination at the Kentucky Agricultural and Mechanical College here came to a climax last night, when in the dormitory, Commandant Robert A. McKee was knocked down, deluged in water and egged by a division of cadets. This morning he resigned, and in the chapel President J. K. Patterson announced that he would take charge of the military department for the present. Commandant McKee was a captain in the Spanish-American war and was appointed to this office last September.

A reporter who visited the college to-day to investigate the matter was egged, rocked and finally marched from the ground by a crowd of about 200 excited students. Their reasons for thus treating him was their objection to the matter being made public.

The faculty is investigating the two incidents and endeavoring to know who were the participants.

POISON IN BISCUITS.

UNPLEASANT EXPERIENCE OF OLDHAM FAMILY IN HOPKINS COUNTY.

MADISONVILLE, KY., April 10.—An attempt was made by some unknown person to exterminate the family of Jeff Oldham by poisoning the food. While eating breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Oldham were taken ill. A physician was summoned who found that they had taken poison, which was in quantities in the biscuits. Antidotes were administered and the sufferers relieved. The only member of the family not affected was the little daughter who had not eaten any breakfast.

THE ONLY SAFE RULE FOR YOUNG LOVERS TO FOLLOW.

"Talk about being in tight fixes," said Chippy, "I'm simply swed up, I am. I might as well be hermetically sealed and dressed in a strait-jacket as an extra precaution. I haven't as much show as a single Boer surrounded by a regiment of British."

"What's the trouble?"

"It isn't trouble. That's mulk-and-water expression in this connection. It's calamity and ruination. Fate would have been kinder had she hanged me or dropped me in the middle of the ocean without a life-preserver. Lobelia's father says that if I go to the war he will withdraw his consent to our marriage, and that if we dislodge him we will never let us see a hilling of this money."

"That would be pretty tough, when you consider that he is a millionaire, but I would accede to his wishes in the matter."

"Oh, you would, would you? Better hear the whole case before passing judgment. Lobelia knows that I'm healthy as a rhinoceros and a trained athlete. She knows that I belong to a military organization that has been ask'd for volunteers, and that there's no good excuse for my remaining at home. She had tears in her eyes when she delivered her ultimatum, but she says that if I do not go with the boys she will declare the engagement off. Talk about being between the upper and nether millstone. What would you do, old man?"

"Please the girl. Don't you know anything about women? Go to the war, and she'll bring the old man to time if she has to create a revolutionary life. If you want her, don't take any notice of his threats and blustering. He'll not be in it—London Tit-Bits."

The Stimulus of Pure Blood

That what is required by every organ of the body, for the proper performance of its functions.

It prevents biliousness, dyspepsia, matism, catarrh, nervousness, weakness, faintness, pimples, blotches, and all cutaneous eruptions.

It perfects all the vital processes.

W. P. Keaton, Woodstock, Ark., took Hood's Sarsaparilla to make his blood pure. He wishes that he had not felt well but tried for some time. Before he had finished the first bottle of this medicine he felt better and when he had finished the second was like another man—from that tired feeling and able to do his work.

Gallant old General Wade Hampton, one of South Carolina's greatest sons, is dead. He was elected governor of his State in 1876 and when the vote of South Carolina was stolen from Tilden he refused to be counted out, but declared, "I have been elected governor, and by the eternal gods I'll be governor."

And he was Governor. Although they got the same vote,
Tilden was counted out and Hampton was counted in.

TOO FINE FOR USE. Story with a Moral Told by Grandma Cook.

When Grandma Cook came home from the picnic she asked with interest about the different villages whom she had seen for the first time, relates a writer in Youth's Companion.

"Who was the handsome young woman who poured the tea?" she asked. "A thin, pale, melancholy girl, very quiet. I did not see her smile once."

"Oh, that," said she, "is Anna Gordon. She's always that way."

"Has she lost friends? She was not in mourning."

"No. Her people are all living, but they are rather commonplace, while Annie is a girl of ideas and originality—almost a genius. She wrote very good poetry at school. But the Gordons are poor. They could not send her to college. She worked so much to go abroad—to Greece and Italy—but the course was impossible. She is a saleswoman in a Breyer & Potts' store. But she's always melancholy, as you see her now. She lives apart, makes no friends, hardly knows the name of her next-door neighbor. Always turns her attention inward, like I am."

Mrs. Cook waited in silence. After a pause she said of Pringle to Maxwell's law: "She said, 'Did I never tell you of that? Well, Pringle's mother brought her a red cashmere shawl which was a young girl. It was like a picture, with its texture and its delicate color.'

"Hanging it we all did, on the wall. I used to envy it. Who in the world ever saw such a thing? It was a picture to me."

"Now, I say," said Bridgette, "it would be nice if I could have it."

"Pringle married, but the shawl was not just to wear, even in her wedded morning. He designed green and blue. We begged Pringle to give it to her a bridal gift. 'No,' she said, 'I will leave it to her when I die.'

"Well, she did die last night. The box was opened and the shawl lifted out. It fell into rags. The moths had done their work, and all the beauty was wasted."

"Now, neither Annie Gordon nor any other girl has a thought too high or a fancy too fine for every-day use. If she would put her beauty or purity into her talk with her old father and mother or into her actions in the store, they would make her life beautiful and a blessing to the world."

SOME GOOD ADVICE.

Given on the Subject of Keeping Post-tensions by J. J. Bill.

You can hold your position, if you can fit yourself to its mold so as to fill every crevice. Be like a cake. "At first it is soft, spongy dough, and is poured into a mold which it half fills. As it bakes it rises, and crowds every part in the mold. Not content, it longs over the top, may wear it down, and becomes larger than the mold will hold. So, young man and young woman, be larger than your mold. After you have filled every crease and crevice of your position to advantage, work out of the top. It is the largest cake that brings the most money."

Always break your promises. Your employer will never ask you to do more than is possible. Remember that an unfulfilled promise is as bad as a downright untruth. After you die and the memory of your pure Christian life will ever serve to remind us that it is not all of life to live nor all of death to die.

Can not back the dear departed. Anchored safe, we are o'er.

Our hearts are broken, and we are o'er.

Soon to meet and part no more.

Just beyond this world of care,

We shall meet our missing loved ones

The route is as follows:

When a man is drawing his respirations, it is a question of timely help. It is the same thing in disease. Many a time the doctor says of a man whose condition is hopeless, "He won't begin to live until he dies."

This is especially true when the disease affects the lungs. Delay is dangerous. The time of use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the quick cure of deep-seated cough, bronchitis, and weak lungs. Even when hemorrhages have been frequent and protracted, Dr. Pierce's Medicine has been used time and again with the result of a perfect and permanent cure. Mr. McCauley of Leesburg, Armstrong County, signed on his hemorrhages, and after other medical aid had failed, he was completely cured by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery."

According to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, there is no other medicine just as good for "weak" lungs. It was in poor health when I commenced using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I was a Law of Volga, Jefferson Co., Ind. I had stomach trouble, and was unable to eat any kind of food. I had a severe cough and hemorrhage of the lungs, but, after using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, my strength and stopped coughing right away. I am now in full health. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, then, and last spring I had a severe cold. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and took four bottles of the discovery and two vials of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I feel like a different person. I gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to all sufferers for I know it cures.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advice prevents cures, is free of cost, and is intended to pay the cost of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Obituary.

Died, at her home near Garrettsburg, March 21, Mrs. Melissa Carson, aged 52 years. She was a pious Christian lady, beloved by all who knew her. Her life was devoted to doing good to those around her. She died as she had lived, trusting and believing in her blessed Master, and the end of her useful life was peaceful and full of hope of a blessed immortality. She had a lovely and lovable character, and amid the trying vicissitudes and bitter disappointments in life, she was supported and comforted by her steadfast, unwavering faith in her Master. She was a devoted, affectionate mother, ever ready with words of sweet counsel and tender advice, to guide the footstep of her children in paths of righteousness. Her life was like a beautiful rainbow ending in a sweet benediction. As her sorrowing friends and relatives looked for the last time upon her calm, peaceful face, which seemed surrounded by a halo of glory, the thought involuntarily came into our minds, "O death, where is thy sting, O grave, where is thy victory?"

We would not call her back, if we could, for we know that she is in that bright and happy land where the storms never blow and the tear of sorrow never fall.

Although she is dead, and no more on earth will hear her loving, cheerful voice, we know that her sweet tender influence will never die and the memory of her pure Christian life will ever serve to remind us that it is not all of life to live nor all of death to die.

Can not back the dear departed.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS is published by S. J. Clarke, editor, and thousands of others prominent in the world's activities, for its fine discrimination in sifting the actual news from conflicting report and the presentation of current events in their just proportion. They comment on its freedom from daily-paper mediocrity. "No man who was not born to know what he was doing find it an intellectual necessity to judge from the letters received from hundreds. Its editorials are comprehensive, and labor saving to the busy man or woman. Its timely contributions on important topics are the best-informed writers in the review periodicals give the best of their best work."—Theodore Roosevelt.

These letters will enable all thoughtful men and women to judge of its value to them:

PRESIDENT.—"I am a constant reader of the Review. It is a valuable publication and appears to have been deservedly to be very highly indeed.

It has been deserved to receive it. I could not otherwise have it a very important part of my library, and practiced a strict economy to do so. I have no time to read much, but the Review is the best book for those who are interested in politics, literature, and the like."—John B. Foraker, U. S. Senator, Ohio.

"It is one of the best and most satisfactory publications of the day."—Charles W. Fairbanks, U. S. Senator, Indiana.

"I consider it a very valuable addition to my library."—Grover Cleveland.

"It is a publication of very great value. I have no time to read magazines, but I take time to read the Review. It is the best book that I have found. It is a monthly magazine which finds a place on my table each month."—James K. Jones, U. S. Senator, Arkansas.

Send for particulars to how it can be had with an invaluable set of books for 50 cents a month.

Lucky Denver School Children. Since Colorado gave suffrage to women, Denver has been appropriating year by year larger and larger sums for education. At present it spends more upon the maintenance of its public schools, per capita of the population, than most of the bigger and richer cities of the United States.

Last year Denver spent $4,69 per capita on school maintenance alone, besides a large additional sum for the building of new school houses. Out of 135 cities in the United States that have a population of more than 30,000 persons, Denver spend less per capita on its public schools than Denver. Rev. Florence Kollock Crooker is a brother who is a teacher in Colorado. She reports him as saying that before women got full suffrage it was very hard to secure adequate school appropriations; but the now, whenever anything is needed for the schools, it is obtained with comparative ease. This she recalls the answer given by Theodore Roosevelt a few years ago, upon being asked why he had recommended woman suffrage in his message to the New York Legislature. He said that in his home town of Oyster Bay there had long been great need of a new school house, but all efforts to secure one failed until the mothers were given the right to vote on the question; then they voted the new school house at once.

Mr. Edward Atkinson says along this line:

"In recent studies of the race problem, my attention has also been called to the proportion of the literate and illiterate in several sections of the country and to the lack of adequacy of common school instruction. In the States in which violence, lynching, the denial of human rights exists, we find the maximum of ignorance and illiteracy among whites as well as blacks. This is coupled with the lowest ratable expenditure for common schools. The only sure remedy for these wrongs is in the extension of the common schools by which the rest of the country has been redeemed and partially civilized. Now, who have been the principal agents in laying the foundations of good government in these common schools? The true standing army upon whom rests the safety of this nation consists of the four hundred and odd thousand teachers in our common schools; seventy (70) per cent, women, thirty (30) per cent, men. If women may rightly be charged with the duty of preparing voters to vote with intelligence in the ratio of two to one, cannot they be trusted to rule themselves on equal terms with those whom they themselves have instructed?"

LYNCHED AT FULTON.

White Man Victim of Mob Law in Tennessee.

Fulton, Ky., April 10.—Frank Taylor, Deputy Marshal on the Tennessee side of Fulton, was shot and killed last night at 7 o'clock by Tom Blackard, aged 23, a farmer, residing near Dukedom, Tenn. At 10:30 o'clock Blackard was taken from the jail by a mob and hanged from a bridge where he was afterwards found dead by officers and citizens.

Will Candler, a saloon man, was accidentally shot in the leg in attempting to capture Blackard.

The Four D's.

Charles Spurgeon once said that there were three great enemies to man—dirt, debt and the devil. He might have added one more d. and included dyspepsia. The evil results of this disease can hardly be exaggerated. Its effects are felt in mind and body and are as far reaching as the curse that was laid on the Jackdaw of Rheims which was cursed in sitting and standing and sleeping and calling and drinking and lying. The good effects of Dr. Pierces Golden Medical Discovery are most marked in aggravated and chronic cases of dyspepsia. It enables the stomach glands to secrete the necessary quantity of digestive fluids, and that at once removes the gnawing sensation that is common to indigestion. It tones and regulates the stomach and gives the blood making glands keen assimilative power.

It cures 98 per cent of those who use it. Dr. Pierces Pellets are superior to other medicines when the bowels are obstructed.

TALKS LIKE PARROT.

Philadelphia Canary Is Indeed a Most Wonderful Bird.

Cannot Only Pronounce His Own Name, While Is Dewey, But Is Learning Other Words—that of His Own Accord.

From an ornithologist as well as a parrot fancier, Dewey is a name to conjure with.

The parrot which the ornithologist's wife has been training to greet the distinguished visitor, achieved amazing conversational fluency, has already been written of. But this parrot has now rivalled the shape of Philadelphia canary who is a namesake of the admiral and a credit to the name.

This accomplished bird, says the New York World, belongs to Mrs. William Lacy, of No. 2134 Master street, Philadelphia. She is the widow of the Harrington Lacy, and is now 70 years old. She had a son three years ago who manifested his unusual power, although he has always been considered remarkable on account of the extraordinary volume and sweetness of his voice.

He had been called George, but when Andrew Dewey's name became a household word the famous surname was added at first half in jest. But Dewey is a name much loved in the Lacy household, and so eventually the name George was dropped and the bird became known as Dewey.

He is a small bird, measuring six inches in length, and is now about 10 months old. He is a tame bird, and loves to be handled, and is very fond of his master's voice, especially when he is reciting a story. When he is not reciting he likes to sit on his perch and sing.

When he is not singing he likes to play with his master's fingers, and is very fond of his master's voice, especially when he is reciting a story. When he is not reciting he likes to sit on his perch and sing.

CONTEST CASES DECIDED.

Judge Credenson Orders New Election for Office of County Clerk.

Elkton, Ky., April 11.—The contested election cases came up for decision before the Todd Circuit Court to-day, Judge S. R. Credenson presiding. After an elaborate argument by the counsel on both sides the court decided that neither Dickinson, Democrat, nor Wood, Republican, was elected Clerk of Todd county at the last election. That neither was entitled to the office and a new election must be held; that Miss Anna Griffin, the Republican Superintendent of Schools, was duly elected and entitled to the office; that the Democratic incumbent in the office of County Judge was duly elected to the office, and that J. R. Mallory, Democrat, was duly elected to the office of County Attorney.

Charges of fraud were preferred in each case and much public interest was manifested in the decision.

A Valuable Medicine for Coughs and Colds in Children.

"... have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds," says Chas. M. Cramer, Eng., a well known watch maker, of Colombo, Ceylon. "It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. It has cured me quickly of all chest colds. It is especially effective for children and seldom fails to bring relief. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well pleased as myself over the results." For sale by all druggists.
